Follow the Leader

In recent weeks we've begun something different at the 8:15 Traditional worship service. When we begin something new, you can't communicate enough on what we are doing and why we do it. This is true for following the cross. Whenever we have a 'Crucifer' (the one who carries the processional Cross) you are invited – during the opening hymn and closing hymn – to follow the cross into worship and follow it out during the end of worship. What this symbolizes is that our focus in worship is on the cross of Christ, or Christ Himself who gave His life freely to die on the cross for our sin. The cross is always the focal point of our worship. Therefore, it is fitting for us to begin and conclude our worship with our focus on the cross.

As we begin the opening hymn, the people are invited to turn to the back of the Sanctuary and focus our sight and hearts on the processional cross. (Of course this means that if we don't have a crucifer, (someone carrying the cross) we can turn forward, facing the front of the sanctuary). As the cross passes you by, physically turn your body, keeping your eyes and hearts on the cross – the focus and heart of worship. One thing that tends to happen is when the cross passes you by, people will still look and follow me coming in. Thank you for the compliment (or the habit of just following the end of the 'parade'). However, remember, I didn't suffer and dies on the cross (I really don't like pain). Christ did and He deserves the focus of our eyes, minds and hearts at the start of worship.

At the conclusion of worship, your invited to do things in reverse order. As the crucifer walks down the aisle during the closing hymn, we, again physically turn our bodies as the cross passes by, with our eyes and attention on the cross. As the crucifer comes to the rear of the sanctuary our focus now becomes one of following the cross of Christ out into our week. Follow the cross as you are off to school; heading to the office or work sited; your volunteer commitments or follow it even if you are doing some mundane errands.

The cross of Christ is most certainly the heart of what we do in worship. The Cross and the Empty Tomb are the two symbols that define our walk and faith with the Lord. So, it indeed fitting for us continue this new practice in worship. Follow the cross of Christ into our worship time and space. And follow it out into our world, life, and week.

In Jesus' Name ……. Amen

THE PRESCHOOL NEWS

Our Spring Open House was a huge success! The kids enjoyed showing off their classrooms and artwork. Many students checked out their classroom for next year and we had lots of families who are enrolled for next year come to visit and experience Trinity for the first time. We enjoyed cookies, punch and lots of smiles and fellowship.

Thank you for welcoming the preschool children, families and staff to the worship service on Sunday. The kids did a great job singing their songs and saying their springtime prayer. I was very moved by their rendition of Jesus Loves Me with sign language. So sweet! And of course it has become tradition to end the service with all the kids joining the Praise Team with the rhythm sticks. We certainly made a joyful noise!! We always enjoy worshipping together. Thank you for your love and support of the preschool ministry.
